HOME RESTORATION

Home repairs are a never ending part of home ownership. Weather affects, leaks, wear and tear, accidents, etc. create a need for Attention. You can do it yourself or you find a company you can trust to identify and solve the problem. The following pictures represent a few of those things, we all have them some where some time. In this issue we will look at what can be wrong and in the April addition we will show you how they can be beautifully resolved.

Just purchased Feb. 18th 2011

Pool? Or Catfish Pond

Historic Shed Roof With Natural lighting

Rodent Entry

Plywood Laundry room Floor with chipped Black paint motif

Honey, when is the bathroom going to be ready?

Um ?

This home renovation project with just a few of the issues pictured is scheduled for a complete makeover to be ready for move in April 1st. Watch for April's Newsletter and the completed photographs or follow us at prohomeandbusiness.com
